

Employee Proprietary Information Agreement

This Employee Proprietary Information and Inventions Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into between:

- Employee Name: _____
- Company Name: _____
- Date: _____

1. Proprietary Information

Employee agrees that all information, whether or not in writing, of a private, secret or confidential nature that concerns the Company's business or its products, technologies, operations, or customers, is Company Proprietary Information and shall not be disclosed or used except as required in the course of employment.

2. Non-Disclosure

Employee shall not, during or after the term of employment, directly or indirectly, use or disclose any Proprietary Information for their own benefit or the benefit of any third party, without prior written consent of the Company.

3. Return of Company Materials

Upon termination of employment or at any time upon request, Employee shall return to the Company all materials containing Proprietary Information, including all copies and notes thereof.

4. Inventions

Employee agrees to disclose and assign to the Company all right, title, and interest in any inventions, discoveries, developments, or innovations conceived or made during the term of employment and related to the Company's business.

5. Term and Governing Law

This Agreement is effective as of the date signed below and shall be governed by the laws of the state or jurisdiction in which the Company operates.

Employee Signature

Date: _____

Company Representative

Date: _____