

Dr. Jordan A. Smith

Email: jordan.smith@email.com

Phone: (123) 456-7890

Address: 123 College Ave, City, State, ZIP

Professional Summary

Dedicated and experienced Adjunct Faculty Member with expertise in curriculum development, teaching, and research in the social sciences. Committed to student success and upholding academic excellence in higher education environments.

Education

PhD in Sociology, State University
2015

MA in Sociology, State University
2011

BA in Psychology, City College
2008

Teaching Experience

Adjunct Faculty “Sociology”, University of Learning
2018 - Present

- Designed and taught introductory and advanced undergraduate courses in Sociology
- Developed and graded assignments, projects, and exams
- Mentored and advised students on academic and career paths

Adjunct Instructor “Psychology”, City College
2016 - 2018

- Taught courses in General Psychology and Social Psychology
- Facilitated discussion-based learning environments
- Collaborated with faculty on program assessment

Research Experience

Research Assistant, State University
2012 - 2015

- Assisted in quantitative and qualitative data collection and analysis
- Co-authored peer-reviewed publications and conference presentations

Publications & Presentations

- Smith, J. (2020). Socioeconomic Effects of Urbanization. Journal of Sociology.
- Conference Speaker, National Sociology Meeting, 2019

Skills

- Curriculum Development
- Online Course Management (Canvas, Blackboard)
- Quantitative & Qualitative Research
- Academic Advising

References

Available upon request.