

End-User Rights and Data Access Policy

Effective Date: [Insert Date]

1. Introduction

This policy outlines the rights of end-users and our data access practices regarding the use of [Your App Name] mobile application ("App").

2. End-User Rights

1. Access: You may request access to your personal data that is processed by the App.
2. Correction: You may request correction of any inaccurate or incomplete personal data.
3. Deletion: You may request deletion of your personal data from our systems, subject to legal requirements.
4. Objection: You may object to certain types of data processing as permitted by applicable law.
5. Data Portability: You may request a copy of your personal data in a structured, machine-readable format.

3. Data Collection & Access

The App may collect and access the following types of personal information:

- Contact information (e.g., name, email address)
- Device information (e.g., device type, operating system)
- Usage information (e.g., app activity, preferences)
- Other information provided by you directly

4. Data Use

Your data will only be used to provide and improve the App's services, communicate updates, and ensure security and compliance. We will not sell or share your data with third parties without your consent, unless required by law.

5. Data Access by Personnel

Access to user data is limited to authorized personnel who require such information to operate, develop, or improve the App. All personnel are subject to confidentiality obligations.

6. Data Retention

We retain your personal data only as long as necessary for the purposes described in this policy or as required by law. Upon deletion request, your data will be removed from our active systems within a reasonable timeframe.

7. Policy Updates

We may update this policy from time to time. Users will be notified of significant changes via the App or email.
