

Termination and Notice Period Clause

1. Termination

- a. Either party may terminate this Agreement by providing written notice to the other party as specified in section 2 below.
- b. This Agreement may be terminated immediately by either party in the event of a material breach by the other party, subject to the breaching party failing to remedy such breach within [number] days of receiving written notice thereof.
- c. The Agreement may also be terminated by mutual written consent of both parties.

2. Notice Period

- a. The party wishing to terminate this Agreement must provide a minimum notice period of [number] days in writing to the other party.
- b. The notice period will commence on the day the written notice is deemed received by the receiving party.
- c. Notice must be delivered via [state acceptable means, e.g., email, registered mail, etc.].

3. Effects of Termination

- a. Upon termination, both parties shall promptly settle all outstanding obligations that have accrued up to the date of termination.
- b. Any provisions of this Agreement which by their nature should survive termination shall remain in effect after termination.

4. Miscellaneous

- a. This clause does not affect any rights or remedies available to either party under law.
- b. [Include any additional terms relevant to your specific needs.]
